The image shows a close-up of a wall covered in stacked stone tiles. The tiles are rectangular and arranged in a staggered pattern. The colors are a mix of earthy tones, including various shades of brown, tan, and grey, with some tiles showing natural stone textures and veining. The lighting is even, highlighting the different textures and colors of the stones.

The image shows a close-up of a brown, tufted leather texture. The pattern consists of a grid of diamond-shaped sections, each with a central button or tuft. The leather has a smooth, slightly glossy finish, and the lighting creates subtle gradients of brown across the surface, highlighting the depth of the tufts.

The image shows a close-up of a dark green, tufted leather surface. The pattern consists of a grid of diamond shapes, each formed by four lines meeting at a central point. At each of these central points, there is a small, circular tuft or button. The leather has a smooth, slightly glossy finish, and the lighting creates subtle gradients of green across the surface, highlighting the texture and the three-dimensional quality of the tufting.
